Mainstays on Athletics—Price Is Set at $1,500. Federal Influence on Players Is Hinted.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 31.—A sensation was sprung in baseball circles today when Connie Mack, manager of the Athletics, announced that he had asked for waivers on Pitchers Bender, Plank, and Coombs. These three men were the mainstays of the Philadelphia machine when it was at the height of its power.

There were unconfirmed reports here today that the three famous pitchers had been negotiating with the Federals, and that this influenced Mack in his decision to dispose of them. As a result of Mack's asking for waivers, any club may obtain any one of the trio for $1,500, the waiver price.
